The Feed - Interaction Overview

The Feed begins with Maya getting ready for her day. She replies to her friend Eva, submits an assignment, and lets some fresh air into her room before leaving for coffee.

1. Start screen
The player selects Begin Morning to close the introduction and start exploring the room.

2. Phone
The player reads Eva's messages and sends a reply asking her to get a table. The phone then shows that the reply was delivered.

3. Laptop
The player submits the assignment Maya finished the night before. The laptop displays a submission confirmation.

4. Window
The player opens the window to let fresh air in. The window slides open and the outdoor sound becomes louder.

5. End screen
After completing the three tasks, the player opens the door to leave. An ending screen appears with an option to restart.
